

Preventive organization

HEALTH AND SAFETY

The Company Management Board has defined a preventive policy in the whole company structure and activities, whether technical processes work organization and conditions to ensure an effective management of H&S. Its implantation is a target for the H&S management and its fulfilment responsibility of all the employees .